

2015-16 Catalog Corrections

Changes/Additions:

- The Funeral Services AAS Degree has been removed from the 2015-16 Catalog effective October 12, 2015. The Funeral Services AAS Degree is a program of John Tyler Community College. Any award issued from this program is awarded by John Tyler Community College. Classes in the Funeral Services Degree are made available to MECC students through distance learning.
- Page 82 – The Program of Study Table Header should state “Credit” not “Credi.”
- Page 99 – First Year Spring Schedule should include a 3-credit Humanities course, totaling 60 minimum credits for degree
- Page 179 – Biology 101 requires test credits or completion of MTE 1, 2, and 3.
- Page 220 – The Course Description for PNE 164 states that the lecture is 5 hours. The lecture is actually 4 hours.
