

2024-2025 Academic Year

Dual Enrollment Parent Authorization Form

*Form must be submitted by the end of the add/drop period for the semester. Any student who has not completed all required paperwork will be dropped from their classes at that time. Form is required once per academic year. *

High School: _____

I, _____, parent of _____ (student), understand that my high school student is taking dual enrollment courses through Mountain Empire Community College. As an MECC student, he/she will be expected to adhere to all requirements and policies of the college. Courses taken through dual enrollment will appear on the student's college transcript, which is a permanent academic record. Additionally, I understand that the college cannot provide me with FERPA-protected information, even if my child is under 18. Please see MECC's College Catalog and Student Handbook for additional information.
